

ETIQUETTE - or The Art of Good Manners

- ❖ Is there such a thing as fashionably late?
- ❖ Why do we put our cutlery together when we've finished eating?
- ❖ What is RSVP and why is it important?
- ❖ What to do when someone mispronounces your name?
- ❖ How do I sign off an email?
- ❖ What's so important about introducing people?

Have you ever wondered about the answers to these questions - and so much more?

Enjoy an entertaining and informative tour around the whys and wherefores of social and corporate behaviour.

A private two-hour class in Merrill's drawing room with our English social and corporate etiquette coach, Helen Field. Learn the secret of successful social interaction (especially after years of Zooming!), how to put other people at ease and how YOU can feel comfortable in all situations.

Understand the roots of social etiquette and see how it can be adapted for the 21st century.

Feel free to ask questions, solve dilemmas, discover long-standing traditions and hear about some of the most amusing, quirky and unique details of English etiquette.
