Wine

Merrill House has the greatest selection of Prince Edward County wines in the world and the great selection of Old World wines between Toronto and Montréal.

Built in 1878 in the heart of Prince Edward County, Merrill House has been restored to its Victorian glory as a magnificent, stately home imbued with art and intellectual interiors. Enjoy the ultimate in personal service, modern technology, and luxurious amenities as you indulge your senses in contemporary art, fine antiques and artifacts, French cuisine, and a meticulously curated wine collection.

Agricultural Tourism at Merrill House

"Launching in 2022, one of the newest agri-tourism offerings in Prince Edward County takes place at the iconic Merrill House where guests can visit sister-property, Hydrangea House, to help the chef forage for herbs and veggies in preparation for dinner. The kitchen gardens focus on specialized ingredients and are grown in one of Prince Edward County's most prized terroirs: Ameliasburgh clay loam. Further afield, the property is also home to a legacy apple orchard where guests can enjoy a fall-inspired picnic and apple picking to get in a harvest mood."
